

TENSES

Tense is a term used to indicate whether a sentence (or verb) is an action in the past, the present or the future.

Type of Tenses :-

Tenses are of three types: past, present, and future.

- The past tense is used to describe things that have already happened (e.g., earlier in the day, yesterday, last week, three years ago).
- The present tense is used to describe things that are happening right now, or things that are continuous.
- The future tense describes things that are yet to happen (e.g., later, tomorrow, next week, next year, three years from now)

1. Present Tense	2. Past Tense	3. Future Tense

PRESENT TENSE

1. SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE/PRESENT INDEFINITE :-

This tense is used to refer to or indicate something that occurs in the present. The simple present tense or present indefinite tense is used to describe an action, event, or condition that is occurring in the present while being spoken about or written.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + 1st form of verb + Object.
	Subject + is/am/are + Noun/Pronoun.
	Subject + is/ am/are + third form of verb / to + first form of verb.
	Subject + has/ have + noun / to + verb
	Subject + do/does + first form of verb (to emphasise the main verb)
	There + is/am/are/ 1st form of verb + Noun/ Pronoun
	It + is + Noun / Pronoun (to emphasise the noun/pronoun)
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + is/ am/are + likely to (to show the possibility)
	Subject + do/does + not + 1st form of verb + Object.
	Do/Does + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Do/Does + Subject + not + 1st form of verb + Object ?
(iii) Interrogative Sentences	Don't/Doesn't + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Wh-Word + Do/Does + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Wh-Word + Do/Does + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?

Examples :-

- He gives me solutions for all problems.
- She doesn't take a bath daily.
- Do you want to meet me?
- There lives a minister in his village.
- You are likely to pass the examination.
- She has her breakfast at 7AM.

RULE 1 :- Repeated Actions.

Use the simple present tense to express the idea that an action is repeated or usual.

The action can be a habit, a hobby, a daily event, a scheduled event, or something that often happens.

Examples :-

- We work very hard at Pinnacle.

- She always bargains in the market.
- He writes with the left hand.
- When does the office open in the morning ?

RULE 2 :- Newspaper headlines

The simple present tense is also used for newspaper headlines. Although the news reported is already done, the simple present tense is used.

Examples :-

- Sachin receives the Bharat Ratna.
- People's president passes away.
- A severe earthquake hits Indonesia.

RULE 3 :- Used in Exclamatory sentences beginning with "here" and "there"

For exclamatory sentences beginning with "here" and "there", we use the simple present tense.

Examples :-

- Here comes the school bus!
- There goes the cat under the car!

RULE 4 :- Used in 'Live commentary' and 'Telling Stories'.

The simple present tense is often used for running commentaries. This provides an ongoing narrative, describing events as they happen, which is especially common for sports, or for telling the stories.

Examples :-

- The ball hits the net, and she loses the point.
- The batsman hits a boundary and the ball crosses the line.

RULE 5 :- To express the 'Universal Truth' and 'Temporal Truth'.

The simple present tense is used for universal truth as well as for temporal truth.

Examples :-

- The earth is round. (universal truth)
- The sun rises in the East. (universal truth)
- His father is a Police Officer. (temporal truth).
- Virat plays cricket with right hand. (temporal truth).

RULE 6 :- For permanent situations.Examples :-

- My house faces the East.
- Allahabad stands on the Ganges.

RULE 7 :- For fixed arrangements in future.Examples :-

- His brother arrives tomorrow.
- Our holiday starts on 15th of May.
- The school reopens on 1st July after summer vacations.

Important note :- Notice the two sentences given below.

1. I don't know what they pay him for his work.
2. What do they pay him for his work ?

In the first sentence, a question is not being asked. But in the second sentence, a question is being asked. When we ask a question, the sentence structure is:

Wh- Word + Do/Does + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?

Note :- The helping verb is used before the subject.

Learn to identify a questioning sentence correctly. Just the presence of questioning words in the sentence like what, why, when, which, how should not mislead you to believe that it's an interrogative sentence.

2. PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE :-

Present Continuous Tense is used to describe an action that is going on at the time of speaking.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + is/am/are + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences :-	Subject + is/am/are + not + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentences	Is/Am/Are + Subject + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object ?
	Is/Am/Are + Subject + not + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object ?
	Isn't/Aren't + Subject + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object ?

Examples :-

- He is reading a book.
- She is not watching TV.
- Is he Studying?
- Are they not watching Cricket?

RULE 8 :- Something that is 'Happening Now' i.e at the time of speaking.

Present Continuous Tense is used to express the idea that something is happening now, at this very moment.

Examples :-

- She is reading a book at this very moment.
- Are you sleeping?
- I am sitting.
- Why aren't you doing your homework?
- Please be quiet when the students are attending a class.

RULE 9 :- Longer Actions in Progress Now

The Present Continuous Tense is also used to mention those things which are in progress at the time of speaking; however, they might not be happening at the exact time of speaking. These things usually happen over a period of time.

Examples :-

- I am attending classes at Pinnacle to get a government job.
- He is looking for a suitable match for his daughter.
- I am preparing for IIT-JEE.
- I am writing my new book.

RULE 10 :- The present continuous tense is also used to show something which is happening before or after a given time.Examples :-

- When I reach home, my children are watching television.
- When I reach the office, everyone is doing their work.

RULE 11 :- The present continuous tense is used when a habitual action is happening but it is becoming a sense of irritation.Examples :-

- He is constantly complaining about something or other.
- You are coming late daily and I am sick and tired of it.

RULE 12 :- The present continuous tense is used when a habitual action is taking place with a cause and an effect.Examples :-

- She is taking exercise daily as she has to partake in a beauty contest.
- My mother is going for a morning walk daily because the doctor has advised her.

RULE 13 :- The present continuous tense is used with a process of change.Examples :-

- Our English is getting better day by day.
- His condition is deteriorating with each passing day.

RULE 14 :- The present continuous tense is used when arrangements are done for any activity or plan.Examples :-

- The President is visiting Hissar next week. (Correct; the arrangement is done for his visit).

- The President visits Hisar next week. (Correct; no arrangement, only scheduled).

3. PRESENT PERFECT TENSE :-

Present Perfect Tense is used to describe an action that has recently finished.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + has/have + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + has/have + Not + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentences	Has/Have + Subject + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object ?
	Has/Have + Subject + Not + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object ?
	Hasn't / Haven't + Subject + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object ?

Examples :-

- I have completed this book.
- I have not completed this book.
- Have you completed this book?

RULE 15 :- Unspecified Time Before Now:

The Present Perfect Tense is used to say that an action happened at an unspecified time before now. The exact time is not important but the action is important.

The Present Perfect Tense cannot be used with specific time expressions such as: yesterday, one year ago, last week, when I was a child, when I lived in Japan, at that moment, that day, one day, etc. In such sentences, past tense is used.

We can use the Present Perfect Tense with unspecified expressions such as: ever, never, once, many times, several times, before, so far, already, yet, etc.

Examples :-

- I have seen that movie twice.
- I think I have met him once before.

Note :- If the past specified time is given, we have to use simple past tense and not the present perfect tense.

Example :-

- We got Independence on 15th of August 1947.

RULE 16 :- To express the 'Experience'.

It can be used to describe your experience.

Examples :-

- I have been to France. (This sentence means that you have had the experience of visiting France. Maybe you have been there once, or several times.)
- I have never been to France.
- I think I have seen that movie before.
- He has never travelled by train.
- Ravi has studied two languages in school

RULE 17 :- The Present Perfect Tense is used to talk about change that has happened over a period of time.

Examples :-

- You have grown since the last time I saw you.
- The government has become more interested in cleaning the Ganga.
- My English has really improved since I joined Pinnacle.

Note:- In the above given examples, We use the present perfect tense to talk about present activities that started in the past and since to talk about the time when an activity started i.e 'since' is followed by 'simple past tense' and preceded by 'present perfect tense'.

RULE 18 :- To express the 'Accomplishments'.

We often use the Present Perfect tense to list the accomplishments of individuals and humanity. As we cannot mention a specific time there.

Examples :-

- Our son has learned how to read.
- Everybody has arrived at the airport.
- Nothing has been done yet.
- Man has walked on the Moon.

RULE 19 :- Present perfect tense is used with the following words:

Till now, yet, of late, till today, recently, up till now, so far, lately, to this date, just.

Structure :-

- (i) Subject + has/ have + just + third form of the verb.
- (ii) Subject + has/ have + yet to + first form of the verb.
- (iii) Subject + is/ am/ are + yet to + first form of the verb
- (iv) Subject + has /have + not + third form of the verb + _____ + yet.

Examples :-

- Aashima has not missed even a single lecture till today.
- Some guests are yet to come here.
- I have just arrived in the class.

RULE 20 :- When an action happening and cause of that action is present in the same sentence, use present continuous tense for the action which is happening at that time and use present perfect tense for the cause of that action.

Examples :-

- Neha is sneezing because she has had a cold.
- Honey is being interrogated because she has committed a heinous crime.

4. PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS :-

When an activity began in the past and is still going on at the time of speaking we use the present perfect continuous tense.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + has/have + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + has/have + not + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time.
(iii) Interrogative Sentences	Has/Have + Subject + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time?
	Has/Have + Subject + Not + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time?
	Hasn't/Haven't + Subject + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time?

Examples :-

- He has been studying for two hours.
- She has not been attending the classes since monday.
- Has he been working on this project for the past 2 days ?

Usage of "for" and "since"

"For" is used for the total time and "since" is used with the starting time. If it is given for what total time period the activity continued then we use "for". But if the starting time for when the activity began is given, then we use "since".

FOR :-

For + Numeral adjective + Minutes/hours/days/weeks/months/years /decades/centuries.

For a long period/long time/moment/while/hours/weeks/years.

SINCE:

Since + Name of a day (eg Monday)/month/year/time/yesterday/name of a season/festival/name of an event.

Since + Stages of Life/parts of the day.

Examples :-

- I have been studying English for five hours. ("For" is used as the total time is given.)
- I have been studying since 5 o' clock in the morning. ("Since" is used as the starting time of the activity is given.)

Note : When frequency of time/ number of actions are given, present perfect continuous tense is not used, instead present perfect tense is used.

Examples :-

- Garima has been writing six letters since morning. (Incorrect; it implies she is writing those same six letters again and again since morning.)

- Garima has written six letters since morning. (Correct; It implies she has written six letters till now.)
- I have met you many times in the past two days.

RULE 21 :- Present perfect /present perfect continuous + since/ever since + subject + IIInd form of the verb.

It is / has been + time expression + subject + IIInd form of the verb.

Examples :-

- I have been teaching English since I came here.
- Ever since I started studying, everything has become easy for me.

PAST TENSE

1. SIMPLE PAST :-

Simple Past Tense is used to describe an action that has been completed in the past.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + IIInd form of verb + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + did not + 1st form of verb + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentences	Did + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Did + Subject + Not + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Didn't + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?

Examples :-

- I saw a movie yesterday.
- I didn't see a movie yesterday.
- Did you see the movie yesterday ?
- Didn't you see the movie yesterday ?

RULE 22 :- Completed Action in the Past

Use the Simple Past Tense to express the idea that an action started and finished at a specific time in the past. The speaker may not actually mention the specific time, but they do have one specific time in mind.

Examples :-

- He played basketball after school yesterday.
- She finished her work before lunchtime.

(a) This is the first/ second time that + subject + has/have + third form of verb.

(b) This is + superlative degree + subject + has/have + third form of verb.

Examples :-

- This is the first time you have fallen in love with a girl.
- This is the most beautiful city I have ever visited.

RULE 23 :- A Series of Completed Actions

We use the Simple Past Tense to list a series of completed actions in the past. These actions happen 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and so on.

Examples :-

- I finished work, walked to the beach, and found a nice place to swim.
- He arrived from the airport at 8:00, checked into the hotel at 9:00, and met the others at 10:00.

Special note :- Usage of do/does and did apart from the main verb in assertive sentences.

Look at the two sentences given below.

1) I did inform the police.

2) I informed the police.

Both the sentences are in the simple past tense and in the first sentence, "did" is used apart from the main verb. "Did" is used here simply to make it more emphasizing and to lay stress. Do/does and did are used to lay more stress if they are used apart from the main verb.

- He did run in the morning.

2. PAST CONTINUOUS :- Past Continuous Tense is used to describe an actions that was in continuation in the past.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + was/were + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + was/were + Not + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentences	Was/Were + Subject + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object ?
	Was/Were + Subject + Not + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object ?
	Wasn't/Weren't + Subject + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object ?

Examples :-

- Some boys were going out of the class.
- They were selling milk at a high price.
- Was he going outside the hall?
- He was not playing the guitar at birthday party.

RULE 24 :- To express an 'Interrupted Action in the Past.'

Use the Past Continuous Tense to indicate that a longer action in the past was interrupted. The interruption is usually a shorter action in the Simple Past Tense.

Examples :-

- I was watching TV (Longer action) when she called (interruption).
- When the phone rang (interruption), she was writing a letter (Longer action).
- I was listening to music (Longer action), so I didn't hear the fire alarm (interruption).
- You were not listening (Longer action) to me when I told you (interruption) to turn the oven off.

RULE 25 :- Parallel Actions

When you use the Past Continuous Tense with two actions in the same sentence, it expresses the idea that both actions were happening at the same time. The actions are parallel.

Examples :-

- I was taking a bath while she was preparing dinner.
- Aman was studying for his exam while his sister was playing badminton.

RULE 26 :- Describing 'Atmosphere' at a specific point in the past, i.e what was happening in the background of a particular event. In English, we often use a series of parallel actions to describe the atmosphere at a particular time in the past.

Example :-

- When I walked into the playground, several children were running around, some people were talking to each other, the gardener was watering the plants and a child was cycling.

While vs. When

When you talk about things in the past, "when" is most often followed by the verb in Simple Past Tense, whereas "while" is usually followed by Past Continuous Tense. "While" expresses the idea of "during that time". They have similar meanings, but they emphasize different parts of the sentence.

Examples :-

- When I opened the window, the wind came in.
- While I was studying, she called.

3. PAST PERFECT :-

Past Perfect Tense is used to describe an action that has finished in the past.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + had + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + had + Not + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentence	Had + Subject + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object ?
	Had + Subject + Not + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object ?
	Hadn't + Subject + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object ?

Examples :-

- She had finished her work

- He had not eaten sushi before last night.
- Had you ever traveled to Europe before this trip?

RULE 27 :- To express a 'Completed Action' Before Something in the Past.

The Past Perfect Tense expresses the idea that something occurred before another action in the past. It can also show that something happened before a specific time in the past. Past Perfect Tense is used to show the earlier action and Simple Past Tense to show the later action.

Examples :-

- I did not have any money because I had lost my wallet.
- Tarun knew Hisar so well because he had visited the city before.
- Had they ever studied Chinese before they moved to China?
- When I arrived, they had already started the meeting.
- She told me her name after she had gone.

Note : We can also use the past perfect tense followed by 'before' to show that an action was not done or was incomplete when the action in the simple past tense happened.

- She had not finished her work before she went to the party.

RULE 28 :- We use the Past Perfect Tense to show that something started in the past and continued up until another action in the past.

Examples :-

- We had used that car for ten years before it broke down.
- They felt bad about selling the house because they had owned it for more than forty years.

Note :-

Sentence Structure:

- 1) 1st action (Past perfect tense) before 2nd action (Simple past tense)
 - The doctor had died before his wife came.
- 2) 2nd action (Simple past tense) after 1st action (Past perfect tense)
 - Rachna told me the truth after his father had left for his office.
- 3) By the time, 2nd action (Simple past tense), 1st action (Past perfect tense)
 - By the time you reached home she had typed all the letters.

4. PAST PERFECT CONTINUOUS :-

The Past Perfect Continuous Tense is used to show that something started in the past and continued up until another time in the past. This is related to the Present Perfect Continuous Tense; however, the duration does not continue until now, it stops before something else in the past.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

Positive Sentences	Subject + had + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time.
Negative Sentences	Subject + had + not + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time.
Interrogative Sentence	Had + Subject + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time ?
	Had + Subject + Not + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time ?
	Hadn't + Subject + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + since/for + time ?

Examples :-

- He had not been waiting for her at the airport for two hours.
- She had been studying English for two hours when her friend called.
- Had they been studying for the exam since morning ?

RULE 29 :- To express the 'Cause of Something in the Past'

Using the Past Perfect Continuous Tense before another action in the past is a way to show 'cause and effect'.

Examples :-

- He was tired because he had been jogging.
- Sam gained weight because he had been overeating.

FUTURE TENSE

1. SIMPLE FUTURE :-

Simple Future Tense is used to talk about an action that will take place in the future.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

Positive Sentences	Subject + shall/will + 1st form of verb + Object.
Negative Sentences	Subject + shall/will + not + 1st form of verb + Object.
Interrogative Sentence	Shall/will + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Shall/will + Subject + Not + 1st form of verb + Object ?
	Shan't/Won't + Subject + 1st form of verb + Object ?

Examples :-

- You will help him later.
- You will not help him later.
- Will you help him later ?

RULE 30 :- “Will” to Express an Action in the future.

Will” often suggests that a speaker will do something voluntarily. A voluntary action is one the speaker offers to do for someone else.

Examples :-

- I will discuss the matter with the family.
- She will not attend the meeting tomorrow.
- Will you join us for dinner tonight ?
- Will not Ramesh go to the picnic with us ?

RULE 31 :- “Be going to” is used to express a plan.

“Be going to” expresses that something is a plan. It expresses the idea that a person intends to do something in the future. It does not matter whether the plan is realistic or not.

Examples :-

- I am going to start a new fitness routine next month.
- We are not going to attend the concert on Saturday.
- Are you going to travel during the summer vacation?
- I am going to visit my grandmother tomorrow.

Note :- No Future Tense in ‘Time Clauses’.

Like all future forms, the Simple Future Tense cannot be used in clauses beginning with time expressions such as: when, while, before, after, by the time, as soon as, if, unless, etc. Instead of Simple Future Tense, Simple Present Tense is used.

Examples :-

- When you will arrive tonight, we will go out for dinner. (Incorrect)
- When you arrive tonight, we will go out for dinner. (Correct)

2. FUTURE CONTINUOUS :-

Future Continuous Tense is used for an action that will occur in the future and continue for an expected length of time.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + shall/will + be + ‘1st form of verb + ing’ + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + shall/will + be + Not + ‘1st form of verb + ing’ + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentence	Shall/will + Subject + be + ‘1st form of verb + ing’ + Object ?
	Shall/will + Subject + Not + be + ‘1st form of verb + ing’ + Object ?
	Shan't/Won't + Subject + be + ‘1st form of verb + ing’ + Object ?

Examples :-

- They will be working on the project during the weekend. @freepdfhall

- They will not be working on the project during the weekend.
- Will they be working on the project during the weekend ?

RULE 32 :- To express an 'Interrupted Action' in the Future

Use the Future Continuous Tense to indicate that a longer action in the future will be interrupted by a shorter action in the future.

Examples :-

- I will be watching TV when she arrives tonight.
- I will be waiting for you when your bus arrives.
- I am going to be staying at the Madison Hotel if anything happens and you need to contact me.
- He will be studying at the library tonight, so he will not see Jennifer when she arrives.

Note :- Notice in the examples above that the interruptions are in Simple Present Tense rather than Simple Future Tense. This is because the interruptions are in time clauses, and we cannot use future tenses in time clauses.

In the Simple Future Tense, a specific time is used to show the time an action will begin or end. In the Future Continuous Tense, a specific time interrupts the action.

3. FUTURE PERFECT :-

Future perfect tense is used to express an action that will occur in the future and is thought to be completed in the future. It is often used with a time expression beginning with: by then, by that time, by midnight, by the end of the year etc.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + shall/will + have + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + shall/will + not + have + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object.
(iii) Interrogative Sentence	Shall/will + Subject + have + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object?
	Shall/will + Subject + Not + have + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object?
	Shan't/Won't + Subject + have + 'Illrd form of verb' + Object?

Examples :-

- I will have reached Delhi by midnight. [It shows a sense of completion of an action (reach) that will occur in the future (midnight).]
- You will not have started the work by this weekend.
- Will she have finished the work by Wednesday?

RULE 33 :- To describe a completed action before something in the future.

The Future Perfect Tense is used to show that something will happen before another action in the future. It can also show that something will happen before a specific time in the future.

Examples :-

- Will you have submitted your application before the due date?
- She will have graduated before she starts her new job.
- By the time she arrives, I will have finished my work.
- By the time I finish this course at Pinnacle, I will have improved my English.

REMEMBER: No Future Tense in 'Time Clauses'

- By the time I will finish this course, I will have improved my English. [(Incorrect) Do not use future tense. Use simple present tense]
- By the time I finish this course, I will have improved my English. (Correct)

Like all future tense forms, the Future Perfect Tense cannot be used in clauses beginning with time expressions such as: when, while, before, after, by the time, as soon as, if, unless, etc. Instead of Future Perfect Tense, Present Perfect Tense is used.

4. FUTURE PERFECT CONTINUOUS :-

We use the Future Perfect Continuous Tense to show that something will continue until a particular event or time in the future. In Future Perfect Continuous Tense, the duration stops at or before a reference point in the future.

SENTENCE STRUCTURES :-

(i) Positive Sentences	Subject + shall/will + have + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + from/for + time.
(ii) Negative Sentences	Subject + shall/will + not + have + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + from/for + time.

(iii) Interrogative Sentence	Will/Shall + Subject + have + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + from/for + time ?
	Will/Shall + Subject + Not + have + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + from/for + time ?
	Won't/Shan't + Subject + have + been + '1st form of verb + ing' + Object + from/for + time ?

Examples :-

- By next year, I will have been working at this company for ten years.
- She will not have been studying for a month by the time the exam takes place.
- Will they have been living in this city for five years by 2025 ?
- She will have been practicing the piano for a decade before she gives her concert.
