

SUBJECT VERB AGREEMENT

The part of a sentence for which a verb is used is called subject. A subject can be used anywhere in the sentence .

Examples :-

- We are the best.
- Who am I ?
- What do you want to do ?

The following forms can be used as a subject.

1. Noun
2. Pronoun
3. The + adjective
4. Gerund
5. To + base form of the verb
6. Wh-word(who, what, where, etc) + to + base form of the verb
7. Wh-word(who, what, where, etc) + Subject + verb
8. All + Subject + verb
9. That + Subject + verb
10. All that + Subject + verb

Examples :-

- Ankur is a businessman.
- They are friends.
- The poor are getting poorer and poorer.
- Teaching you is an honor for me.
- To dance is very difficult.
- What to do without you is a big question?
- Where she goes is not known.
- All I have is yours.
- That you are my best friend is known to all.
- All that you have told is true.

In English, the verb must agree with its subject in number and person. In other words, the verb must be of the same number, person, gender and tense as the subject. This is the main rule that forms the background of the concept.

Rules related to the subject verb Agreement :-

RULE 1 :-

Subjects don't always come before verbs in questions. Make sure you accurately identify the subject before deciding on the proper verb form to use.

Examples :-

- Where are the pieces of this puzzle ?
(The subject is not "this puzzle" but it is "the pieces of this puzzle" so the subject is plural. Hence the plural verb "are" should be used.)
- The study of languages and sciences is very important for your study.
(The subject is not "languages and sciences" but it is "The study", so the verb here should be singular.)

RULE 2 :-

When the two nouns are joined by "and" and each has an article before it then we consider them as plural and plural verbs are used.

Example :-

- The director and the producer is shooting in Himachal. (Incorrect)
- The director and the producer are shooting in Himachal. (Correct)

Important Note :-

A) But when two nouns are joined by "and" and the first one has an article before it and the second one does not have its own article then we consider them as singular and singular verbs are used.

Examples :-

TCG-@freepdfhall

- The principal and director of the school is on leave for three days. (Here the same person is acting as the principal and director both, so the singular verb is used)
- A large and comfortable chair is needed in my study. (Here, we have only one chair which is both large and comfortable, so the singular verb will be used.)
- A black and a white cat. (Means two cats, article "a" is used before both the nouns, So the plural verb is used.)
- A black and white cat. (Only one cat that has both the colours black and white. So the singular verb is used.)

B) If two different singular nouns or uncountable nouns express one idea, the verb should be in the singular form. Or if the two singular nouns/uncountable nouns are used in pairs then the verb used will be singular.

Example :-

- The law and order situation in the state are under control. (Incorrect)
- The law and order situation in the state is under control. (Correct) (The words law and order are used together so singular verb will be used)
- Profit and loss is a part of the business. (Profit and loss goes in pairs so a singular verb "is" is used)
- Hard work and luck is important for success. (Hard work and luck go in pairs)

List of words used in pairs :

lock and key	cloak and dagger	salt and pepper	supply and demand
lost and found	profit and/or loss	down and out	trial and error
crime and punishment	cause and effect	fish and chips	up and/or down
Bed and breakfast	pure and simple	flesh and blood	wait and see name and address	rain or shine	signed and sealed	Wait and watch
body and soul	right and/or wrong	forgive and forget	war and peace
null and void	cup and saucer	sooner or later	law and order
bread and butter	rise and fall	give and take	Pen and pencil

RULE 3 :-

'Unlike', 'no less than', 'nothing but', 'As well as', 'with', 'alongwith', 'together with', 'and not', 'In addition to', 'but', 'besides', 'except', 'rather than', 'accompanied by', 'led by', 'governed by' and 'like' - If these words are the connecting words that join two subjects then the verb used will be according to the first subject.

Examples :-

- My sister, unlike my brothers , wishes to have a career in engineering.
(Singular Subject) (singular verb)
- The actress, along with her manager and some friends, are invited to the function. (Incorrect)
(Singular Subject) (Plural verb)
- The actress, along with her manager and some friends, is invited to the function. (Correct)
(Singular Subject) (Singular verb)

In the case of "noun/pronoun, noun in apposition", the verb will be used according to that noun .

Example :-

- I, Suresh has been your buddy for years. (Incorrect)
- I, Suresh have been your buddy for years. (Correct; the verb will be used according to "I".)

RULE 4 :-

When two or more subjects are connected by "or, nor, either ... or, neither ... nor, none-but." the verb is according to the subject close to it. This is the rule of proximity.

Examples :-

- Does either my uncle or his son have a big truck? (Incorrect)
- Does either my uncle or his son has a big truck? (Correct)
- Neither the girls nor he are to take up this task. (Incorrect)
- Neither you nor he is to take up this task. (Correct)

- Either the Chief Minister or the Cabinet Ministers is responsible for this problem. (Incorrect)
- Either the Chief Minister or the Cabinet Ministers are responsible for this problem. (Correct)
- None but the teacher know the answer to the riddle. (Incorrect)
- None but the teacher knows the answer to the riddle. (Correct)

RULE 5 :-

Usage of either, neither, none, etc.

"Neither of....." is used only in case of two things or persons i.e 'not in one of the two things or persons'. In case of more than two, "none" should be used.

Examples :-

- Neither of his five sons settled in India. (Incorrect)
- None of his five sons settled in India. (Correct)

"Either of....." means the choice is between two persons and things i.e one of the two things or persons.

Example :-

- Either of the three children has broken the window. (Incorrect)
- Either of the two children has broken the window. (correct)

"One of...." is used to select one out of something which is more than two in number or a member of a particular group or set.

Examples :-

- One of the six boys admitted before the principal that they all had cheated in the exam.
- This book is one of the bestsellers of the year.

"Both"/"not"

Do not use "both" and "not" in the same sentence. If we wish to state that out of the two things, not even one of them, then use "neither of".

- Both of the girls did not reach the examination centre on time. (Incorrect)
- Neither of the girls reached the examination centre on time. (Correct)

Structure :- Either / Neither / Each / One + singular verb.

Either / Neither / Each / One + singular noun + singular verb.

Either / Neither / Each / One + of + plural noun / plural pronoun + singular verb.

Examples :-

- You have two daughters but neither resembles you.
- Each student has the right to education.
- Each of the candidates agrees to submit documents.

RULE 6 :-

When "not only but also" is used to combine two subjects, the verb agrees with the subject that is close to it.

Examples :-

- Not only silver, but also gold are mined in this country. (Incorrect)
- Not only silver, but also gold is mined in this country. (Correct)
- Not only the boys, but also the coach wants a day off. (Correct)
- Not only the coach, but also the boys want a day off. (Correct)

RULE 7 :-

'Majority' can be singular or plural. If it is used alone it is usually singular; if it is followed by a plural noun, it is usually plural.

Examples :-

- The majority believe that the country can progress. (Incorrect)
- The majority believes that the country can progress. (Correct) (Treated as singular because it is not used with any noun.)
- The majority of the lecturers believes that the student has not copied in the examination. (Incorrect)
- The majority of the lecturers believe that the student has not copied in the examination. (Correct)

RULE 8 :-Collective noun

A collective noun is a word that is used for a whole group. It denotes a group of individuals.

Examples of collective nouns: family, group, committee, class, organization, team, army, club, crowd, government, jury, public, mob, etc. A collective noun is treated as plural when the group it denotes is considered to be made up of individuals and as the members of the group can act on their own and not as a group but when they act as a group, singular verb is used with it.

Examples :-

- The committee have met and accepted the proposal. (Incorrect)
- The committee has met and accepted the proposal. (Correct)
- The family were happy at the news. (Incorrect)
- The family was happy at the news. (Correct)
- The crowd was wild with excitement. (Correct)
- Our team is certain to win the match. (Correct)
- Three committee members have been restricted from discussing meetings with the media. (correct)

Structure :- A + collective noun + of + plural noun + singular verb.

Examples :-

- A set of combs has cost me twenty dollars.

RULE 9 :-

Generally with a plural number, we use a plural verb.

Example :-

- Ten trees were cut down by the woodcutters.

But nouns indicating a specific time, money, and measurement (weight, distance and height) which are used as a whole, are singular and take a singular verb.

Examples :-

- Twenty-five thousand rupees are not such a big amount for him. (Incorrect)
- Twenty-five thousand rupees is not such a big amount for him. (Correct)
- Two miles are too much for this man to run. (Incorrect)
- Two miles is too much for this man to run. (Correct)

Note :- But when they are not used as a whole and are further subdivided into smaller units we use a plural verb.

Note the difference :-

- Twenty-thousand rupees is a handsome salary. (Treated as a singular unit)
- Twenty-thousand rupees have been spent on different useful commodities such as rent, groceries etc. (Subdivided into smaller units)

RULE 10 :- When “a lot of”, “a great deal of”, “plenty of”, “most of”, “a number of”, and “some of”, are used with plural countable nouns, a plural verb is used.

Examples :-

- A lot of people was present in the gallery; (Incorrect)
- A lot of people were present in the gallery (Correct)
- Some of the students was absent. (Incorrect)
- Some of the students were absent. (Correct)

Note :- If these expressions are used with an uncountable noun, the verb used is singular.

Examples :-

- A lot of work has to be completed before we go. (Correct)
- A great deal of work has been finished. (Correct)

RULE 11 :-

When expressions like “ten percent of /twenty percent of / two thirds of/ rest of/ half of/ part of” are used with uncountable or singular nouns, a singular verb is used but when these are used with plural nouns, a plural verb is used.

Examples :-

- Thirty percent of the book has been read.
- Rest of the chairs are broken.

RULE 12 :- Names of countries/ states/ books/ subjects/ diseases/ games/ rivers are always singular and a singular verb is used with them. Certain names like West Indies, United States may seem to be plural as they end in "s" but they are singular.

Examples :-

- "Arabian nights" has a number of interesting stories.

Exception :- My/ your/ his/ her/ name's + ----- + name of subject ending with ics + plural verb.

Examples :-

- Deepika's mathematics are extreme.
- How are your mathematics?

RULE 13 :-

When the "enemy" is used in the sense of "armed forces" of a nation with which one's country is at war, we consider it as a plural noun and use the plural verb with it.

Examples :-

- The enemy were forced to retreat.
- The enemy were pushed back into their own territories by the Indian Army.

RULE 14 :-

Structure :- None + singular verb.

None + of the + uncountable noun + singular verb

None + of the + plural countable noun + plural verb

None but + singular noun + singular verb

None but + plural noun + plural verb

Examples :-

- None has come yet.
- None of the counterfeit money has been found.
- None of the students have finished the exam yet.
- None but a boy is waiting for you.
- None but your parents toil and moil everyday.

"No" can take either a singular or plural verb depending on the noun which follows it.

Structure :- No + singular noun + singular verb

No + plural noun + plural verb

Examples :-

- No example is relevant to this case.
- No examples are relevant to this case.

RULE 15 :-

Structures :- (i) A number of + plural noun + plural verb.

(ii) The number of + plural noun + singular verb.

Examples :-

- A number of students is going to the class picnic. (Incorrect)
- A number of students are going to the class picnic. (Correct)
- The number of days in a week are seven. (Incorrect)
- The number of days in a week is seven. (Correct)
- A number of the applicants have already been interviewed. (Correct)

RULE 16 :-

The following are considered singular.

Each, Every, Everyone, Everything, Everybody, Someone, Somebody, Something, Nobody, No one, Nothing, Anybody, Anyone, Anything, One, Any, More than.

We use a singular verb, singular pronoun, and singular noun with them.

Examples :-

- Each student from Pinnacle has cleared the exam.
- Each boy and each girl has to finish his work by the weekend.

- More than one man was present there.
- Each man and each woman was garlanded by the host.

Important Exception :- More + Plural Noun + than one + Plural Verb.

Example :-

- More Players than one score hundred runs.

RULE 17 :-

The word 'Many' can be used in the following ways:

Structure: Many + plural verb.

Many + plural noun + plural verb.

Many of + plural nouns + plural verbs.

A great/good + many + plural noun + plural verb.

Many a/an + singular noun + singular verb.

Example :-

- Many a student is standing in the canteen.
- Many students were standing in the canteen.
- A great many students were standing in the canteen.
- Many are present today.

'Much' is an uncountable noun and always takes a singular verb with it.

Example :-

- Much sugar has been consumed.
- Much of the money has been sent to your brother.

RULE 18 :-

In optative sentences, the verb used is always plural irrespective of the subject. Even with singular subjects we use a plural verb.

Examples :-

- God save the world!
- Long live our prime minister!
- May he achieve success!

RULE 19 :-

The Amount of/quantity of + Uncountable Noun, the verb used will be singular.

- The amount of sugar are not sufficient to prepare a cup of tea. (Incorrect - Use "is")
- The amount of money is not sufficient. (Correct)

RULE 20 :-

"All" can be treated as both singular and plural.

When "All" refers to persons or things i.e when used as countable, it is treated as plural and when used as uncountable it is treated as singular.

Examples :-

- All are waiting for the principal to arrive. (Referring to Countable noun i.e "All" is treated as plural)
- All Cheese contains proteins. (Referring to Uncountable noun i.e "All" is treated as Singular)
- All of the students are studying for the exam. (referring to the countable noun 'students', the plural verb "are" agrees with it.)

RULE 21 :-

The following nouns appear as singular but they are plural and a plural verb is used with them.

Cattle, cavalry, clergy, infantry, poultry, peasantry, children, gentry, folk, police, people, vermin, staff, youth etc.

Examples :-

- The police are investigating the case.
- The cattle were grazing in the field.
- The peasantry are deeply dissatisfied with their wages.

RULE 22 :- Verbs must agree with the inverted subjects.

TG-@freepdfhall

search on TG-@freepdfhall

Examples :-

- Sir, there is a problem in this topic. (Here, "problem" is the inverted subject, and it is singular. The verb "is" agrees with the subject.)
- Sir, there are problems in this topic. (Here, "problems" is the inverted subject, and it is plural. The verb "are" agrees with the subject.)

RULE 23 :-

If a gerund or an infinitive comes as a subject, the verb will be singular. If there is more than one gerund or infinitive as a subject, the verb will be plural.

Examples :-

- Running is a good exercise.
- Running and jumping are her favorite activities. (plural verb "are" agrees with the plural subject "running" and "jumping")
- To err is human.

RULE 24 :-

If "It" and "There" are used as Introductory Subjects, then the verb used with "there" always depends upon the noun or pronoun that comes after "there".

Examples :-

- There was a Lion.
- There were two Lions.

But "It" always takes the singular verb.

Example :-

- It is these girls that come late today.

RULE 25 :- If the structure is "noun + preposition + noun + verb", then the verb used will be according to the first noun.

Example :-

- The quality of the mangoes is excellent.
- The behavior of your boys and girls is praiseworthy.

RULE 26 :-

(i)	One of + plural noun + singular verb
	Example :- One of the teams has been eliminated from the match.
(ii)	One of + plural noun + relative pronoun + plural verb + singular verb
	Example :- One of the students who have completed their assignments is ready to present his project.
(iii)	Subject + main verb + one of + plural noun + relative pronoun + plural verb
	Example :- Arjun is one of the contestants who argue with the judges.

RULE 27 :-

When "means" represents the meaning of source of income, a plural verb is used with it. But when "means" represents the method or manner of doing something, it can be used as both singular and plural, hence the verb depends on the singularity or plurality of the noun.

Example :-

- I can't pay your debts because my means are scanty. (Here, "means" represents the meaning of income, so a plural verb is used).
- His means of achieving success is hard work and dedication. (Here, "means" represents the method).

RULE 28 :-

When “wages” means result, it takes a singular verb. When “wages” represents the payment paid to someone for the work done. It takes a plural verb.

Example :-

- Whether you believe it or not, the wages of sin is death. (Here, wages means result, so a singular verb is used with it).
- The wages you have offered me are not upto my expectation. (Here, wages represents the salary, so a plural verb is used with it).

RULE 29 :-

With the possessive pronouns like mine/ yours/ ours/ theirs etc. the verb will be used according to the noun included in them.

Examples :-

- Your parents are talented but mine are skillful.
- Your scissors are sharp but hers are blunt.

RULE 30 :-

In case of the words, “the following/ the latter/ the former”, the verb is used according to the noun they are used to refer to.

Examples :-

- The following are the list of selected candidates. (Incorrect)
- The following is the list of selected candidates. (Correct; the verb will be used according to the noun “list”).
- Both your parents and wife are good at handling these issues but the former is better than the latter. (Incorrect)
- Both your parents and wife are good at handling these issues but the former are better than the latter. (Correct; the verb is used according to the former noun i.e. parents).

RULE 31 :-

Structure :- Adj + and + adj + uncountable noun + Plural verb.

Examples :-

Social and cultural life in India is changing. (Incorrect)

Social and cultural life in India are changing. (Correct)
