

ARTICLE

An article is a word or a letter that is used before a noun and tells about the certainty of that noun, i.e. if it is general or specific. These words belong to the family of words called determiner and are a kind of adjective.

Definite article and Indefinite article :-

There are two types of articles:

- (i) Indefinite articles : A/An
- (ii) Definite article : The

Note :- "A" or "An" is called the Indefinite Article because it mentions an indefinite person or thing. "A" or "An" can be used only with Singular Countable Nouns that are not specific. E.g. A boy means any boy. A teacher means any teacher.

Example :-

- I saw a movie yesterday. ('a' is used for movie but not specific.)
- This is a book. (Book- Singular Countable Noun but not any specific book.)

E.g.- If I say, "Let's read the book" (It means a specific book.)

If I say, "Let's read a book" (It means any book, not a specific book.)

Rules related to the Article :-

USAGE OF "A/AN"

RULE 1 :-

When we pronounce a word we have to go by the initial sound. If that initial sound is of "Vowel" (i.e A, E, I, O, U) then we use "An" before them. And if the initial sound is of "Consonant" (any of the letters of the English alphabet except A, E, I, O and U) then we have to use "A" before them.

Example :- An MLA.

Although MLA begins with M, when we pronounce it the first sound is a vowel. So "an" will be used. Similar is the case with an MA degree, an SP, an LLB degree etc.

RULE 2 :-

"A"/ "An" are used before some indefinite numbers.

Example :- A lot of, a number of, a great deal of, a half of, a large number of, a quarter of, an apple, etc.

RULE 3 :-

"A" can be used before some indefinite collective numbers.

Example :- A team of, a gang of, a flock of, a herd of, a swarm of, a panel of, a bunch of.

RULE 4 :-

If an adjective modifies the singular noun in the sentence, then we use 'a' or 'an' before that adjective depending upon the initial sound of the adjective that immediately follows the article.

Example :-

- I saw big (Adjective) elephant (noun) at the zoo. (Incorrect)
I saw a big elephant at the zoo. (Correct)
- She is wearing elegant (Adjective) dress (noun). (Incorrect)
She is wearing an elegant dress. (Correct)

RULE 5 :- "A" is used instead of "per".

Example :-

- Petrol is sold at Rs. twenty-five a litre.
- The rent for the apartment is $1000 a month.

RULE 6 :-

TG-@freepdfhall

search on TG-@freepdfhall

To show the whole class of singular common nouns, we can use “a” before a common noun. A singular verb must be used with them in these sentences.

Example :-

- A bird has two wings.
- A monkey has a tail.

Exception : But, common nouns like Man and Woman used to represent the human race, do not follow the above rule.

Example :-

- A man is mortal.—(Incorrect)
- Man is mortal. —(correct)

RULE 7 :-

The indefinite articles are used to indicate a profession, nationality status, or religion.

Example :-

- I am a teacher.
- Brian is an Irishman.
- He is a doctor.

RULE 8 :-

If we put the article “a” before the plural number the forthcoming noun becomes singular.

Example :-

- Five days match. (Incorrect)
- A five-day match. (Correct)
- Ten miles walk. (Incorrect)
- A ten-mile walk. (Correct)
- Fifteen men committee. (Incorrect)
- A fifteen-man committee. (Correct)

RULE 9 :-

“A” is used before these words because they have the sound of consonants in their first letters.

Examples :-

A university, a union, a unique film, a European, a one-rupee note, a one-eyed person, a one-act play, a one-sided decision.

RULE 10 :-

If a singular noun is placed after many, such, quite, just, enough, rather, how, too, so etc, we use “A” or “An” before that noun.

Examples :-

- I have never seen such girl in my life. (Incorrect)
I have never seen such a girl in my life. (Correct)
- Roma is quite dull girl. (Incorrect)
Roma is quite a dull girl. (Correct)
- It was such silly statement. (Incorrect)
It was such a silly statement. (Correct)
- It was such important match. (Incorrect)
It was such an important match. (Correct)
- Rajesh is candidate intelligent enough to crack any competition. (Incorrect)
Rajesh is a candidate intelligent enough to crack any competition. (Correct)
- This is too difficult question. (Incorrect)
This is too difficult a question. (Correct)

RULE 11 :-

If these words are used in the singular, we use “a” before them; Noise, Lie, Hole, Headache, Toothache (words ending in ache), commotion etc.

Examples :-

- The student makes noise in the class. (Incorrect)
The student makes a noise in the class. (Correct)
- Jonny always tells lie. (Incorrect)
Jonny always tells a lie. (Correct)

RULE 12 :-

A/An is used in the following phrases.

In a temper, in a bad/good mood, in a minute, in a fix, in a hurry, in a nutshell, make a noise, keep a secret, as a rule, at a stone's throw, a short while ago, at a loss, take a fancy to, taken an interest in, take a liking, a pity, tell a lie.

Examples :-

- You are not allowed to make a noise.
- He is in a fix in this matter.
- He is always in a hurry.

RULE 13 :-

A/An is not used in the following phrases.

To lose heart, to set foot, to give ear, at home, to catch fire, in hand, set on fire, by car/bus etc, at last, by mistake, in danger, to take heart.

Examples :-

- He has a task in a hand. (Incorrect)
He has a task in hand. (Correct)

RULE 14 :-

A/An is used before a word which is generally used as a verb but is being used as a noun in a sentence.

Examples :-

- We drink water. (Verb)
- He purchased a drink. (Noun)
- People fight over small issues. (Verb)
- We witnessed a fight in the market. (Noun)
- Girls love to dress up. (Verb)
- I purchased a new dress. (Noun)

RULE 15 :-

In exclamatory sentences beginning with "what", if a singular countable noun is used then a/an will be used before the noun.

Examples :-

- What a beautiful day!
- What a tough question!

RULE 16 :-

An article "a/an" is not used before nouns that are followed by - kind of, sort of, type of, variety of.

Examples :-

- What variety of a mango is this? (Incorrect)
- What variety of mango is this? (Correct)

RULE 17 :- "A/An" is used in the vague sense of a certain person.Example :-

- A Ravi Sharma is suspected by the police.

(Ravi Sharma is a proper noun so it should not take an article. But here it is referring to a certain person Ravi Sharma whom we don't know i.e it is not clear who is Ravi Sharma which means the sense is vague and not clear.)

RULE 18 :-

"A" is used with certain numbers. Eg: a hundred, a thousand, a million etc.

'A' is more common than 'one' before thousand, million, billion etc.

Examples :-

- There were a hundred rupees to be paid.
- There were a hundred people in the playground.

RULE 19 :-

"A" is used before "half", when "half" is followed by a whole number.

Examples :-

TG-@freepdfhall

search on TG-@freepdfhall

- 1½ kilos - one and a half kilos or a kilo and a half. (Here "one" is seen as a whole number. But for ½ kg, we use half a kilo. We can not use a half kilo because half is not a whole number. Article "a" will not be used before half.)

RULE 20 :-

We can't use "A/An" before uncountable nouns, such as sugar, music, gold, silver, work, bread, news, progress, knowledge, money, wastage, hair, furniture, weather, traffic, baggage, advice, scenery, poetry, postage, crockery, evidence, etc.

Example :-

- Can you give me a evidence for this?(Incorrect)
Can you give me evidence for this? (Correct)
- She used to write a poetry. (Incorrect)
She used to write poetry. (Correct)

ARTICLE "THE":

"The" is called a definite article, we use "The" with specific nouns, like a certain person or a particular thing.

Example :-

- The book is with Rahul. (Talking about the specific book that is with Rahul)
- Did you bring the English notes? (Specific notes of 'English')

When a person or thing has already been mentioned earlier in the sentence, definite article "The" is used in later reference to that particular person or thing. To talk about the class of things, animal "article The" is used.

Example :-

- I saw a beggar near the bus stop; the fellow came to me for help.
- The dog is known as man's best friend.

USAGE OF "THE"RULE 21 :-

"THE" is called a definite article. "Definite" means "specific". Use "THE" when talking about something which is already known to the listener or which has been previously mentioned, introduced, or discussed.

Examples :-

- Nidhi has a cat. The cat is black.
- There is a book in my bag. The book is very heavy.
- Do you know where I left the car keys? (The listener knows which specific car keys are being talked about.)

RULE 22 :-

Use "THE" with superlatives such as "the best", "the biggest", "the most important", "the least interesting", etc.

Examples :-

- This is the best day ever.
- This is the most expensive hotel room I've ever stayed in my life.
- He told the funniest story.

RULE 23 :-

We often use "THE" plus a singular noun when they talk about or make generalizations about certain topics, including:

1. animals (the leopard, the elephant, the gorilla)
2. inventions (the steam engine, the plane, the light bulb)
3. currencies (the dollar, the euro, the yen)
4. body parts (the head, the eye, the ear)

Examples :-

- The Wright brothers invented the aeroplane.
- Right now, the euro is stronger than the dollar.
- Madhu got poked in the eye.

RULE 24 :-

Generally, articles are not used with the names of illnesses or diseases.

Examples :-

- Dr Veena visits schools and universities to educate students on cancer.

- Oncologists are doctors who specialize in treating cancer.
- There are several medications that can be used to treat malaria.

Exceptions: There are some illnesses which require “THE”.

Example :- the measles, the flu, the mumps, the plague.

MOREOVER : There are a few health conditions or illnesses with which we can use both “a/an” and “THE”. This category includes most aches, pains, growths, and attacks.

Examples- a cold, a heart attack, a stroke, a tumor/growth, etc., a sore throat/sore back/sore foot/ etc., a headache/toothache/backache, etc.

Examples :-

- Aayansh has a cold. The cold was very bad.
- Madhu had a heart attack. The heart attack seriously weakened her heart.
- The clerk had a sore throat. The sore throat made it hard to talk.

RULE 25 :-

If a direction (north, west, southeast, left, right) directly follows a verb, do not use an article with the direction.

Examples :-

- We need to walk south.
- They drove north all day.
- At the stop sign, turn left and walk three blocks.

HOWEVER: If a direction follows a preposition, you must use “THE”.

Examples:-

- Our house is in the north.
- The grocery store is on the right.

RULE 26 :-

Article “the” is not used before the name of persons.

Examples :-

- Ram has topped the class.
- Ravi is my brother.

Sometimes we compare a person to some historical or other well-known personality for certain specific traits. In such sentences, a/an will be used.

Examples :-

- He is a Sachin Tendulkar. (Means he plays cricket very well)
- He is a Vishwanathan Anand. (Means he plays chess very well)
- His younger brother is a Lakshman. (Means he is very devoted to his elder brother)

But sometimes we wish to be more specific.

- He is a Sachin. (Just a simple comparison so use “a” only)
- He is the Sachin of our school cricket team. (Here it is clearly mentioned that he is the Sachin of our school cricket team. It becomes definite so “the” will be used before Sachin.)

Exceptions :-

“THE” can be used with plural family names to refer to the family as a group if it is a powerful and well recognized family.

Examples :-

- The Gandhis are very powerful in Indian politics.
- The Bachchans are originally from Allahabad.
- My brother lives next door to the Ambanis.

RULE 27 :-

“THE” can be combined with certain adjectives to refer to a group of people such as “the blind”, “the elderly”, “the rich”, “the French”, “the powerful” etc.

Examples :-

- He is elderly. (Adjective)
- The organization helps the elderly. (The elderly refers to old individuals or senior citizens.)

REMEMBER :- This is especially important in situations where nationalities or ethnic groups and their languages might be confused. In such situations, "THE" is used to specify that we are talking about the nationality or ethnic group rather than the language.

Examples :-

- I like French. (Language)
- I like the French. (The French people)
- French is spoken by the French. (The language (French) is spoken by French people (The french)).

RULE 28 :-

Do not use "THE" with the names of most countries unless the name contains a word such as "States", "Kingdom", "Republic", "Emirates", "Union", "Coast", etc.

Examples :-

- Madhu lives in Japan.
- He lives in the United States.

RULE 29 :-

Use "THE" with the names of:

1. oceans
2. Seas
3. coasts
4. Rivers
5. swamps
6. archipelagos
7. collections of lakes (such as the Great Lakes)
8. mountain chains
9. deserts
10. references on the globe (such as the Equator, the North Pole)
11. geographic regions (such as the Northwest, the Middle East)
12. bridges (except Tower Bridge)
13. pagodas
14. hotels
15. theaters
16. museums
17. institutes
18. skyscrapers
19. the Sun, the Moon
20. extraordinary works of art or architecture (such as the Great Wall of China, the Taj Mahal)
21. planets
22. names of the hotels

Note : But if the name of a bridge, museum etc is after the name of a person or place we do not use "the" before it.

Examples :-

- I would love to visit the North Pole.
- He met me at Lakshmi Bai Chowk.
- I dropped him at Indira Gandhi International Airport.
- I met him at the Mall road. (Here the road's name is mall road which is not the name of a person so "the" will be used.)

(Since the names of places have names of persons in them so article "the" will not be used.)

RULE 30 :- Do not use article "THE" with:

1. individual lakes
2. individual islands
3. beaches
4. waterfalls
5. individual mountains (Kanchenjunga)
6. streets
7. public squares
8. hospitals
9. stadiums

10. malls
11. parks
12. churches
13. temples
14. universities
15. colleges
16. languages
17. religions
18. days of week
19. the months of the year
20. holidays
21. names of meals
22. names of subjects
23. names of hobbies
24. names of games

HOWEVER :-

There are additional exceptions to some of the above categories. For example, THE is often used in the pattern "the ... of".

Examples :-

- The University of Colorado
- The Temple of Ranakpur

RULE 31 :- "THE" is used in some time expressions such as:

- in the morning
- in the afternoon
- in the evening
- during the night
- during the day
- the day before yesterday
- the day after tomorrow
- the fall
- the summer

Examples :-

- We'll meet in the afternoon.
- There was a small earthquake during the night.

Exception : In other time expressions, no article is used:

- at night
- at noon
- at midnight
- all day
- all month
- every month
- every year
- last night
- last Friday
- yesterday

Examples :-

- Did you sleep well last night?
- I'll see you tomorrow.
- We are meeting for lunch at noon.

RULE 32 :-

When a thing or group of things is unique we use the article "THE" before it.

Example :- The earth, the sky, the sun, the equator, the rainbow, the universe, the pole star, the north pole etc.

RULE 33 :-

We use the article "THE" before a noun that the speaker and the listener are both aware of.

Example :-

Example :- The Hindustan Times, The Hindu, The Dainik Bhaskar, etc.

RULE 39 :-

"THE" is used before words referring to physical environment.

Example :- the fog, the rain, the sunshine, the countryside, the wind etc.

RULE 40 :-

"THE" is used before names of musical instruments. But when we refer to them as a countable noun we use "a/an".

Examples :-

- The flute is a wind instrument.
- I can play the piano.
- I want to buy a harmonium.

RULE 41 :-

"THE" is used before radio/television (TV).

When we refer to them as a countable noun we use a/an. In the case of television, if there is "watch" or "on" before the word "television/TV" then we do not use "the".

Examples :-

- Where is the radio?
- I left the radio on the shelf.
- She bought a radio for her kitchen.
- I like to watch the TV after a long day at work. (Incorrect)
I like to watch TV after a long day at work. (Correct).

RULE 42 :-

The word "same" and "whole" are preceded by "THE".

- Have you ever been on the Orient Express train?

RULE 44 :-

Article "THE" is used before names of dynasties, historical events, historical periods and empires.

Example :- The Chola period, The Marathas, The Harappan Age, The first Battle Of Panipat, The French Revolution, The Slave Dynasty, The Rajputs, etc.

RULE 45 :-

"THE" is used before names of Armed Forces.

Example :- the police, the army, the navy, the air force.

RULE 46 :-

"THE" is used before names of government branches.

Example :- The judiciary, the legislature, the executive

RULE 47 :-

"THE" is used before the name of a part of the body if it has a preposition before it.

Examples :-

- She hit me on the cheek.
- He looked her in the eyes and told her that she was telling a lie.

Note :- "THE" is not used in some idioms if they are formed of a PREPOSITION + PART OF THE BODY.

Examples - at hand, in hand, on foot, an eye for an eye.

RULE 48 :-

If "all of", "either of", "neither of", "each of", "most of", "some of", "both of", "half of" "none of" etc. follow a noun, we use "the" before that noun.

Examples :-

- Most of the students at Pinnacle come to take the test regularly on Sunday.
- Some of the rice; half of the juice; none of the cement; most of the milk.

RULE 49 :- Usage of "THE" in comparative form.

i) If "OF THE TWO" is there after a comparative degree, we use "the" before that comparative.

- He is the better of the two students.
- Hisar is the cheaper of the two cities.

ii) We use 'the' before each comparative adjective in a successive comparison to indicate simultaneous change.

- The higher we go the colder we feel.
- The more they get, the more they want.
- The older he gets, the weaker he becomes.

RULE 50 :-

When the personality (qualities/expressions) present in a person is being talked about, the article "THE" comes with the name of that personality.

Example :-

- The leader(sense of justice of leader) in her spoke out and she advocated for equality.
- The chef (passion for cooking of the chef) in him ignited, and he prepared an exquisite meal.

RULE 51 :-

Article 'the' is used before some titles given to famous personalities.

Examples :-

- The great Shivaji was a Maratha warrior.
- Ashoka the Great is considered one of ancient India's most influential rulers.

RULE 52 :-

We use "the" before the words relating measurement or counting.

Examples :-

- Sugar is sold by the kilogram.
- The height of the mountain is over 3,000 meters.

RULE 53 :-

We use articles with the first noun/ adjective to denote one person or thing. For more than one person or thing, we use articles with all the nouns/adjectives.

Examples :-

- Suman is a bold and beautiful dancer.
- A poet and a politician are my friends.

RULE 54 :-

No article is used when there is the same noun before and after a preposition.

Examples :-

- A student after student is committing suicide. (Incorrect)
