(c) No error
(d) This story is quite interesting

Solutions :-

Sol.1.(d) A - The institute will spend more

'More' is used after the amount while 'over' is used before the amount. For example:- six billion more & over six billion. Since the error is in one part, we must replace 'more' with 'over'. Hence, 'The institute will spend over' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.2.(d) C - peals for laughter at his joke

'Peals of laughter' is the correct phrase, which means the sound of a large group of people laughing. Hence, 'peals of laughter at his joke' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.3.(d) (4) - on a ecosystem

In part (4), the word 'ecosystem' begins with a vowel sound, so it should be preceded by the article 'an', which is used before words starting with a vowel sound (for example, an apple, an alien, an umbrella). Hence, 'on an ecosystem' is the most appropriate usage.

Sol.4.(b) (2) - were submitted to the authorities

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. The subject of the sentence is 'The proposal', which is singular. Therefore, the plural verb 'were' should be replaced with the singular verb 'was'. Hence, 'was submitted to the authorities' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.5.(b) (2) - to compile the data accurately and quick

In part (2), the two words joined by 'and' should be in the same grammatical form. Here, 'accurately' is an adverb, while 'quick' is an adjective. For parallel structure, both words should be adverbs. Hence, 'accurately and quickly' is the most appropriate form.

Sol.6.(d) (4) - of there being dissatisfaction within the sector.

In part (4), the phrase 'of there being dissatisfaction' is grammatically awkward and unnecessarily complex. It should be simplified to 'of dissatisfaction within the sector' for clarity and correctness. Hence, 'of dissatisfaction within the sector' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.7.(b) (2) - discontinues its legacy service model

When verbs such as 'suggest', 'recommend', 'advise', 'insist', 'demand', or 'propose' are followed by 'that', the verb in the subordinate clause is used in its base form. Hence, 'discontinue its legacy service model' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.8.(a) (1) - Anita took such an offense at the remark

The expression 'take offense' does not take an article. Therefore, 'an offense' is incorrect in this context. Hence, 'Anita took such offense at the remark' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.9.(b) were grazing in

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. In the given sentence, the subject 'a herd' is a collective noun and is treated as singular. Therefore, 'were' should be replaced with 'was'. Hence, 'was grazing in' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.10.(d) a nicely treat

In part (d), 'nicely' is an adverb, and a noun requires an adjective for description. Therefore, 'nicely' should be replaced with the adjective 'nice' to describe the noun 'treat'. Hence, 'a nice treat' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.11.(c) nowhere

'Couldn't' is already a negative form, so we cannot use 'nowhere' with it. Therefore, 'nowhere' should be replaced with 'anywhere'. Hence, 'I couldn't find my keys anywhere' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.12.(a) After she finished

If two actions took place in the past, the 1st action is written in past perfect tense(had + V₃) and the 2nd action is written in simple past tense(V₂). Similarly, in the given sentence, the 1st action is finishing her presentation. Therefore, 'finished' must be replaced with 'had finished'. Hence, 'After she had finished' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.13.(b) denied to

The verb 'deny' is used when we do not admit or acknowledge a mistake or an act. 'Refuse' is used when we do not accept something that is being given to us. The given sentence conveys the meaning that the cashier did not accept the damaged note (given by the customer). Therefore, 'denied' must be replaced with 'refused'. Hence, 'refused to accept' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.14.(b) having excess to

In part (b), the word 'excess' is incorrect because it means an extra amount of something. The given sentence refers to the students' ability or permission to obtain the exam papers. In this context, the correct word is 'access,' which means the ability or right to enter, use, or obtain something. Hence, 'having access to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.15.(b) Sahil suggested that I take rest. (Correct)

(a) Sahil suggested me to take rest. (Incorrect Pronoun)

(c) Sahil suggested me that I take rest. (Unnecessary Pronoun)

(d) Sahil suggested for me to take rest. (Incorrect Pronoun)

Sol.16.(c) for this years

The error lies in "this years". The phrase refers to the annual function of "this year", which is a singular noun. Therefore, the correct possessive form is "year's", with the apostrophe placed before the s to indicate possession. Hence, "for this year's" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.17.(b)

(2) - were ready for the sudden fire drill 'Were' should be replaced with 'was'. When 'neither... nor' connects two subjects, the verb agrees with the subject closest to it. In this case, 'the teacher' is singular, so the verb should be singular ('was'). Hence, 'was ready for the sudden fire drill' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.18.(b)

(2) - remains a contentious subject

'Remains' must be replaced with 'remain'. The subject of the sentence is 'The profound implications' (plural). The phrase 'a field still largely inscrutable to the uninitiated' provides additional information about 'quantum theories' but does not change the number of the main subject. Therefore, a plural verb is required. Hence, 'remain a contentious subject' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.19.(c)

(3) - are increasingly becoming a topic

'Are' must be replaced with 'is'. The subject of the sentence is 'The profound impact' (singular). Therefore, a singular verb is required. Hence, 'is increasingly becoming a topic' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.20.(c)

(3) - but also it was thoroughly tested 'Not only ... but also' is a fixed conjunction pair and the same part of speech is used after them. As there is an adjective after 'not only', we need to use an adjective after 'but also'. Therefore, 'it was' must be removed. Hence, 'but also thoroughly tested' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.21.(a) (1) - He seldom if never

'Seldom if never' should be replaced with 'seldom if ever'. The correct phrase is 'seldom if ever', meaning very rarely or almost never. 'Seldom if never' is grammatically incorrect. Hence, 'He seldom if ever' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.22.(b) (2)

The word reckless is an adjective, but after very, we need an adverb to describe the verb drives. Hence, "very recklessly" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.23.(b) (2)

The phrase "neither of" is always singular, so it must be followed by a singular verb. Hence, "applicants has submitted" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.24.(d) complains for

The verb 'complain' is typically followed by the preposition 'about' or 'of' when stating the reason for the complaint, not 'for'. Hence, 'complains about the noise' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.25.(b) never

The correct phrase is "seldom if ever", which means rarely. Hence, 'seldom if ever' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.26.(b) (2) a blunder mistake

'Blunder mistake' is a superfluous expression. 'Blunder' means a huge mistake. So, we cannot use 'mistake' and 'blunder' together. Therefore, 'mistake' will be removed. Hence, 'a blunder' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.27.(d) (4)

The word "confusion" is an uncountable noun and does not have a plural form. 'Much' is used with uncountable nouns, not 'many'. Hence, "so much confusion" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.28.(d) you start

The phrase "It is high time" is followed by the simple past tense, even when referring to a present or future action. This structure expresses that something should have already happened or should begin immediately. Therefore, "you start" should be "you started."

Sol.29.(a) is willing to join

"Neither...nor/ Either...or" is a conjunction pair that is used only for two subjects, and the verb is supplied according to the subject closest to the verb. This is called the rule of proximity. 'His friends' is a plural subject that will take 'are' as a plural verb. Hence, 'are willing to join' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.30.(a) cope up with

'Cope up with' is an incorrect verb. 'Cope with' is the correct phrasal verb, which means to deal with a difficult situation. Hence, 'cope with' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.31.(c) most

The given sentence needs a comparative degree to make a comparison between the safety of this route and the highway. 'Safer' is the correct comparative degree. Therefore, 'most' must be removed. Hence, 'most' is the incorrect part.

Sol.32.(a) has arrested

'Police' is a plural noun, therefore a plural verb should be used with it. 'Has' must be replaced with the plural verb 'have'. Hence, 'have arrested' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.33.(d) are arriving soon

The subject "The father" is singular, and the phrase "with his sons" is only an accompanying detail. Therefore, the verb should be singular. Hence, "is arriving soon" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.34.(a) to hung till death

The verb "ordered" is followed by the base form of the verb after "to." In the given sentence, "hung" should be replaced with "hang." Therefore, "to hang till death" is the correct phrase.

Sol.35.(c) is married with

'To' is a fixed preposition used with the verb 'marry.' Therefore, 'is married to' is the correct form.

Sol.36.(b) drowned

The verb "drown" is used for humans or animals, not for ships. Therefore, the correct sentence is "The ship sank in the sea."

Sol.37.(a) to accompany

In the given sentence, the verb "insist" is correctly followed by "on" + gerund (V-ing form). Therefore, the correct sentence is "she insisted on accompanying me."

Sol.38.(c) is now ready for analysis (3)

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb and a plural subject always takes a plural verb. The subject of the sentence is 'samples', which is plural. Therefore, the verb should also be in the plural form. 'Is' should be replaced with 'are'. Hence, 'are now ready for analysis' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.39.(b) on

'On' is used to indicate the presence of something on a surface. 'Into' is used to indicate movement towards the inside. The given sentence talks about movement towards the inside of the lake. Hence, 'into' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.40.(a) Each students in the science club (1)

'Everyone/ each/ every/ nothing/ everything/ anything/ either/ neither' represents a singular noun. Therefore, 'students' should be replaced with the singular noun 'student'. Hence, 'Each student in the science club' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.41.(c) were praised by the cultural association (3)

In the given sentence, 'The artist' is a singular subject that will take a singular verb. Therefore, 'were' must be replaced with 'was'. Hence, 'was praised by the cultural association' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.42.(d) (4) - will be sent to all members.

When the phrase 'By the time' is used with simple present tense, future perfect tense is used in the 2nd clause. In the second clause, 'the final draft' is the subject, which receives the action rather than performs it. Therefore, passive voice structure will be used. 'Will have been + V₃' is the correct passive structure for future perfect tense. Hence, 'will have been sent' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.43.(b) (2) - each student submits

After verbs like 'recommend, suggest, insist, demand', the base form(V1) of the verb is used in the present tense even if the subject is plural. Therefore, 'submits' must be replaced with 'submit'. Hence, 'each student submit' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.44.(d) (4) - without stating the concerns out.

'Out' is not required in this sentence, therefore it must be removed. Hence, 'without stating the concerns' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.45.(c) (3) - but could not draw on

'Draw on' must be replaced with 'draw out'. The phrasal verb 'draw out' means to elicit or extract information, which fits the context of identifying the main issues raised by employees. The given sentence talks about bringing out or identifying the key concerns. Hence, 'could not draw out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.46.(d) (4) - without pointing any issue out.

'Out' is not required in this sentence, therefore it must be removed. Hence, 'without pointing any issue' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.47.(c) (3) - but could not figure up

Sol.48.(d) (4)

The given sentence is in the simple past tense, therefore the past form of the verb will be used. 'malfunctions' must be replaced with 'malfunctioned'. Hence, 'malfunctioned during the final stage' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.49.(a) (1) - The document was replete by errors

'With' is the correct preposition to use here instead of 'by'. The expression 'replete with' means full of or filled with something. In the given sentence, the document is described as being full of errors. Hence, 'The document was replete with errors' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.50.(b) (2) - remained effective since three years

'Since' is used to denote a point of time, which indicates the starting point of an action. 'For' is used for a fixed period of time (countable), such as 2 years, 3 months, or 4 days. In the given sentence, the phrase 'three years' indicates a duration, not a starting point. Therefore, 'since' must be replaced with 'for'. Hence, 'remained effective for three years' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.51.(d) considered pseudoscience

The 'pseudoscience' mentioned in the given sentence is not specific and we generally use the indefinite article 'a' before a non-specific noun. Hence, 'considered a pseudoscience' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.52.(d) in an earlier job, he will never be 'A man' is already mentioned as a subject of this sentence. We cannot use 'he' in the sentence as it becomes the case of superfluosity(not necessary). Therefore, 'he' must be removed from the sentence. Hence, 'in an earlier job, will never be' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.53.(a) that the Monarchy is

Article 'the' must be removed. No article is used before the forms of government such as democracy, plutocracy, dictatorship, monarchy. Hence, 'that Monarchy is' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.54.(a) although it is urgent.

'Although' must be replaced with 'as / because'. The issue is urgent, that is why discussion on it can not be postponed. Here, we need a connector to show the cause or reason. Hence, 'because it is urgent' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.55.(b) make it to drink.

'To' must be removed. There are some verbs that take a bare infinitive(without 'to') after them. These are 'make, let, bid, see, watch, observe'. Hence, 'make it drink' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.56.(b) One must do one's duty properly.

Each pronoun has its own possessive adjective. For example - (I/my), (he/his), (she/her), (one/one's). Hence, option (b) is the correct sentence.

Sol.57.(c) None than you

'Than' must be replaced with 'but'. The correct phrase is 'none but' or 'none other than', which means 'only'. Hence, 'none but you' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.58.(a) lest you should not

'Lest' is used without 'not'. Hence, 'lest you should' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.59.(b) shouldn't we 'Shall we' is the correct question tag for an imperative sentence starting with 'let us'. Hence, 'shall we' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.60.(c) respect those

'His' is used with 'everybody / everyone / somebody / someone / nobody / no one' if the gender is unknown. Similarly, the given sentence talks about every single person, both male and female. Hence, 'respect his' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.61.(d) The speaker's emphasiss is

'Emphasis' is the correct spelling.

Sol.62.(d) Throw a round stone to create ripples in the water.(Correct)

(a) Throw the roundest stone to create ripples in the water.

'Would' must be replaced with 'will' as we generally use future perfect tense (will/shall + have + V₃) to express an action which will be completed before a certain point in the future. Hence, 'Mr sharma will have left' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.70.(d) on an Atlas-Agena D rocket

Article 'a' must be replaced with 'article 'an' as we generally use article 'an' with the nouns starting with a vowel sound. Similarly, in the given sentence, 'Atlas-Agena D' starts with a vowel sound. Hence, 'an' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.71.(d) less

'Lesser' is used to indicate something of lower importance or significance & 'less' used to indicate a lower amount or degree. Hence, 'less' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.72.(c) He is chef who specialises in Italian cuisine.

The article 'the' is used to refer to specific or particular nouns. Similarly, in the given sentence, 'chef' is a specific person. Hence, 'He is the chef who specialises in Italian cuisine' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.73.(b) which help me developed my communication and writing skills

The phrase 'which help me developed' must be replaced with 'which helped me develop'.

The given sentence is in the past tense so it must have the verb in the past form(V₂-helped) and not in the present form(help).

We generally use the first form of the verb(V₁) after certain verbs such as help, let, bid, make, etc. Hence, 'which helped me develop' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.74.(c) a earth

Article 'a' must be replaced with article 'the' because 'Earth' mentioned in the given sentence is specific and we generally use the definite article 'the' before any specific or particular noun. Hence, 'the Earth' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.76.(c) as journalist

Article 'a' is used before the words starting from a consonant sound (a conversation, a story). Therefore, article 'a' must be used before the word 'journalist'. Hence, 'as a journalist' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.77.(c) what I was looking for

'What' must be replaced with 'that' as when we introduce a relative clause that provides more information about a noun, we typically use "that" or "which" instead of "what". Hence, 'that I was looking for' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.78.(b) I use to

'Use to' must be replaced with the semi-modal 'used to' as we generally use it to state a habitual action from the past. Hence, 'I used to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.79.(c) Sky appears blue

'Sky appears' must be replaced with 'The sky appears' as we generally use definite article (the) before a specific or particular noun. Hence, 'The sky appears blue' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.80.(a) boxes have

'Have' must be replaced with 'has.' According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", 'One of/ Each of/ Most of/ Either of + Plural Subject + Singular verb' is grammatically the correct structure. Hence, 'boxes has' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.81.(d) it will rain

'Will rain' must be replaced with 'rains' as the given sentence is an example of the first conditional sentence and the correct grammatical structure is "if + simple present.....will + V₁". Hence 'rains' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.82.(a) We hardly knew nothing

'Nothing' must be replaced with 'anything'. 'Hardly' and 'Nothing' both are negative words so we can't use them together. We generally use the pronoun 'anything' in negative and interrogative sentences. Hence, 'we hardly knew anything' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.83.(d) When Mrs. Sinha came to see Varanasi in 2019, Nupur has already been teaching there for five years.

'Has been' must be replaced 'had been' as the first clause of the sentence is in Past Tense. So, we need to use "Past Perfect Tense(Had been + V₁-ing)" to make the sentence grammatically correct. Hence, 'Nupur had already been teaching(V₁- ing)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.84.(d) No error

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.85.(c) try and learn language

'And' must be replaced with 'to' as we generally use an 'to + infinitive(V₁)' after certain verbs like try, bid, let, make, need etc. Hence, 'try to learn language' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.94.(b) for which he went

'Where' means in or to the place or situation mentioned. The given sentence states that the only place where he went was the library. Hence, 'where he went' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.95.(c) by three years

'For' refers to a specific period of time or a numerical value of time, for example for 2 years, for 4 weeks, for 3 days, etc. Similarly, in the given sentence, the given period of time is three years. Hence, 'for three years' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.96.(d) Late to the class; he has been warn.

"Has/have been + V₃" is the correct grammatical structure for the given sentence which is in the present Perfect Tense. Hence, 'late to the class; he has been warned(V₃)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.97.(d) The knight was received

The given sentence must be in the active form of the simple past tense so the verb 'was' must be removed to make it grammatically correct. Hence, 'The knight received' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.98.(b) with dint of

'By dint of' is the correct phrase that means by means of something. Similarly, the given sentence states that he passed the exams by means of hard work. Hence, the preposition 'with' must be replaced with 'by' & 'by dint of' becomes the most appropriate answer.

Sol.99.(a) Isn't she

According to the "Question Tag rule", if the statement is positive, the question tag will be negative & Vice-versa. However, the sentence and the question tag must be in the same tense. The given sentence is in simple present tense. So the same tense will be used for the question tag. The given sentence is positive so the question tag will be negative (doesn't). Hence, 'doesn't she' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.100.(a) Much interesting stories than this

Use 'more' in place of 'much'. For comparison we use the word 'more' and not 'much'. Hence, 'More interesting stories than this' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.1.(d) if you want to Future tense cannot be used in a conditional clause (if-clause). Rather, we use simple present tense (Plural Subject + V₁) to denote the condition of a present action/event. Hence, 'if you want(V₁) to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.2.(a) standing beside the college gate

'Besides' means in addition to. 'Beside' means at the side of. The given sentence talks about Nick's position at the side of the gate. Hence, 'standing beside the college gate' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.3.(b) is too good to be true

'News' is an uncountable noun and always takes a singular verb. Therefore, the plural verb 'are' should be replaced with the singular verb 'is.' Hence, 'is too good to be true' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.4.(b) so clearly that no one had any doubts

'Any' is used with negative adverbs or pronouns to indicate lack or absence of something. Similarly, in the given sentence, the person is talking about the absence of doubts after the clarification by the instructor. Hence, 'so clearly that no one had any doubts' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.5.(c) go in for

The phrasal verb 'go in for' means to enter or take part in an examination or competition. Here, It accurately conveys the intention of participating in the final examination after preparation. Hence, 'go in for' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.6.(b) availed himself of the opportunity

The verb 'avail' is typically used reflexively, meaning it must be followed by a reflexive pronoun ('himself', 'myself', 'yourself', 'ourselves', etc.) when the subject benefits from the action. Here, Rahul benefits from the opportunity, so the correct expression is 'availed himself of the opportunity'. Hence, 'availed himself of the opportunity' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.7.(b) were you

The phrase 'If i were' is generally used in the subjunctive mood to talk about possibilities, wishes, or conditions that are contrary to reality. 'If I were... (would + V₁) / (would have + V₃)' is the correct grammatical structure. Hence, 'If I were you' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.8.(c) Each of the boys recited his poem

In the given sentence, 'each' is singular, so the possessive pronoun referring to 'boys' must also be singular. Therefore, 'their' should be replaced with 'his.' Hence, option (c) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.9.(b) is a long distance

When a plural noun refers to a single unit, amount, time or distance, it takes a singular verb. Here, 'ten miles' is considered a single distance. Therefore, 'are' must be replaced with the singular verb 'is'. Hence, 'is' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.10.(b) by boat

The preposition 'by' is used to indicate a mode of transport. For example:- by car, by bus, by train, by plane, by boat, by bike, etc. Hence, 'by boat' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.11.(b) past the age

In the given sentence, the phrase 'after the age' is incorrect because it is not idiomatic in standard English. The correct expression is 'past the age', which means that someone is older than the age at which a caretaker is required. Here, the brother has moved past the age of needing a caretaker. Hence, option (b) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.12.(b) for making false promises

The verb "criticised" is followed by the preposition for when indicating the reason for criticism. Hence, "for making false promises" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.13.(a) of handling

The adjective 'capable' is always followed by the preposition 'of', which then takes a gerund (V-ing form). Hence, 'capable of handling' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.14.(c) where they had been

When a Wh. word (what, how, why, where, when, etc) is used to start a relative clause in a sentence, the helping verb and the main verb both are used after the subject in the clause. Moreover,, the given sentence is in the past tense, therefore past perfect tense (had + V₃) will be used. Hence, 'where they had been' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.15.(a) finished

The given sentence is in the past tense, therefore, 'finish' must be replaced with the past form 'finished'. Hence, 'finished' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.16.(a) completed his work

The adverb "yesterday" refers to a specific time in the past, so the verb should be in the simple past tense. Hence, "completed his work" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.17.(a) doesn't he?

According to the "Question Tag rule", if the statement is positive, the question tag will be negative and vice versa. However, the sentence and the question tag must be in the same tense. Similarly, the given sentence is positive, so the question tag will be negative (doesn't). Hence, 'doesn't he' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.18.(b) superior to the one

There are some words that indicate comparison but do not take 'than'. Rather, 'to' is used with them. For example:- superior to, inferior to, prior to, senior to, junior to, elder to, prefer to, etc. Hence, 'superior to the one' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.19.(d) published several reports

In the given sentence, the helping verb 'would have' is used for both 'written' and 'publish'. However, the third form of the verb is used after 'would have'. Therefore, 'publish' must be replaced with 'published(V₃)'. Hence, 'published several reports' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.20.(a) that he could eat the entire meal

The construction "so ... that ..." is used to show a result. Here, "so hungry" indicates that he was able to eat the entire meal. Hence, "that he could eat the entire meal" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.21.(d) were you

"If I were V₂ (past form of the verb)" is the correct grammatical structure for a conditional sentence. Hence, 'was' will be replaced with 'were' to make the given sentence grammatically correct.

Sol.22.(a) a lot of work

"Work" is an uncountable noun, so we cannot say "much works" or "many works." The correct way to express a large quantity is "a lot of work." Hence, option (a) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.23.(c) might have been prevented

The given sentence is an example of a third conditional sentence and the if-clause is in the past perfect tense ('If + subject + had + V₃'). The main clause is in the passive voice and 'might have + been + V₃' is the correct grammatical structure for it. Hence, 'might have been prevented' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.24.(a) because

'Because of' is followed by a noun phrase but in the given sentence, we have a clause afterwards. Therefore, 'because' will be used as a conjunction to join the two clauses. Hence, 'because' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.25.(a) submitted

The phrase "would rather + subject + verb" is used to express a preference for someone else's action. When referring to a preference for the present or future, simple past tense(V₂) is used after the subject. Hence, 'submitted(V₂)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.26.(d) easiest

'Easiest' is the correct superlative degree of 'easy'. Hence, 'easiest' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.27.(d) An innovative

'More' must be removed as there is no comparison in this sentence. Article 'a' must be replaced with article 'an' as we use 'an' before words starting with a vowel sound (an apple, an umbrella, an MBA). Hence, 'an innovative' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.28.(c) so far from

'From' is used with 'receive' to indicate the source destination or sender. In the given sentence, 'the main island' is the source destination from which no information has been received so far. Hence, 'so far from' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.29.(b) don't you?

According to the "Question Tag rule", if the statement is positive, the question tag will be negative & Vice-versa. However, the sentence and the question tag must be in the same tense. Similarly, the given sentence is positive so the question tag will be negative(don't). Hence, 'don't you?' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.30.(b) to watch

We generally use an infinitive(V₁) with the preposition 'to'. Hence, 'to watch' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.31.(b) is important

According to the "Subject-Verb Agreement Rule", a singular subject always takes a singular verb. Similarly, 'Health insurance' is a singular subject that will take 'is' as a singular verb. Hence, 'is important' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.32.(a) no sooner did he finish

"Do/does/did + V₁" is the correct grammatical structure. Hence, 'no sooner did he finish' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.33.(d) building up inside her

The phrase 'building up' means becoming stronger or more intense. Hence, 'building up inside her' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.34.(a) Her arms

There is an error in the usage of Adjective. Adjective 'My' must be replaced with 'her' as the subject of the sentence is 'the girl' that will take the adjective 'her' with it. Hence, 'her arms' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.35.(c) he must have studied well

We need to use present perfect tense (have + V₃) to indicate the action that was completed in the past but has connection to the present. The given sentence states that Raju did very well in the exam, he must have studied well. Hence, 'must have studied(V₃) well' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.36.(d) The given sentence needs an adverb(slowly) to modify the verb(moved) and not an adjective(slow). Hence, 'slowly moved' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.37.(a) 'Some room for improvement' means an opportunity for improvement.

Sol.38.(b) 'Go bankrupt' is a phrase that means do not have enough money to pay debt. The given sentence states that the MNC is unable to pay its debts. Hence, 'go bankrupt' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.39.(a) Are reflective of the level of job satisfaction

The given sentence is in the simple present tense so the verb must be used in the simple present form(V1). Hence, 'are(V1) reflective of the level of job satisfaction' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.40.(c) No substitution required

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.41.(d) No improvement required.

The given sentence is grammatically correct.

Sol.42.(d) Which Gopal had caught

'Who' must be replaced with 'Which' as 'Which' is used for things and 'Who' is used for people. Also, we generally use (V₃) with had/has/have. Hence, 'Which Gopal had caught' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.43.(b) Until you come to

'Until' is used as a conjunction and Instead of a noun phrase, we use a subordinate clause after until which is in simple present tense. Hence, 'Until you come to' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.44.(c) The heart rending cries

'Heart Rending' means something that causes you to feel great sadness and pity. Hence, 'the heart rending cries' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.45.(c) The correct phrase is 'were playing in the garden' as 'frolicking' means behaving in a happy and playful manner whereas 'playing' means taking part in a game or a sport. The word 'playing' makes the sentence meaningful. Hence, 'were playing in the garden' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.46.(a) 'As' is used for comparing people or things & 'like' is used for giving examples. However, in the given sentence, two persons are being compared on the basis of friendliness. Hence, 'so friendly as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.47.(d) same book as

We generally use 'like' for giving examples of something. However, the phrase 'same as' means someone or something that is exactly like another thing. Similarly, the given sentence talks about a book that is exactly the same book that the teacher recommended. Hence, 'same book as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.48.(b) passed off

'Passed out' means to become unconscious for a short time & 'Passed off' means to evade or lightly dismiss an awkward remark. However, the given sentence states that the feeling of dejection was evaded or dismissed in a minute. Hence, 'passed off' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.49.(b) nearly three-fourths

'Three-fourths + of + something' will be the correct grammatical structure for the given sentence. Hence, 'nearly three-fourths' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.50.(a) The article 'The' is used to refer to specific or particular nouns & Article 'a' is used to modify non-specific nouns. For example, If I say Let's buy the book. I mean a specific book but if I say Let's buy a book, I mean any book rather than a specific book. Similarly, in the given sentence, the magnifying glass is not specified so it can be any glass. Hence, 'with a magnifying glass' is the most appropriate answer.

Solutions :-

Sol.1.(a) Luminous

'Luminous' means bright or shining. The given sentence states that the tiny rabbit kept staring at them with luminous eyes. Hence, 'luminous' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.2.(d) no article

In this sentence, 'hope' is an uncountable abstract noun. We generally do not use any article before uncountable nouns. Hence, 'no article' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.3.(c) the

The given sentence talks about a specific 'foresight' and we generally use the definite article 'the' before a specific noun. Hence, 'the foresight' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.4.(c) through

'Through' is the correct preposition because it indicates the process or means by which disputes are resolved. In formal and legal usage, disputes are commonly resolved through arbitration. Hence, 'through' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.5.(d) hurriedly

'Hurriedly' is the correct adverb that modifies the verb 'finished', describing how Riya finished the work. Hence, 'hurriedly' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.6.(b) by boat

The preposition 'by' is used to indicate a mode of transport. For example:- by car, by bus, by train, by plane, by boat, by bike, etc. Hence, 'by boat' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.7.(b) past the age

In the given sentence, the phrase 'after the age' is incorrect because it is not idiomatic in standard English. The correct expression is 'past the age', which means that someone is older than the age at which a caretaker is required. Here, the brother has moved past the age of needing a caretaker. Hence, option (b) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.8.(a) further up the mountain.

When talking about a mountain or slope, we use the preposition 'up' to indicate a higher position. Hence, 'further up the mountain' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.9.(c) cut out for

The phrasal verb 'cut out for' means to have exactly the right qualities for a particular role or job. The given sentence states that he was cut out for a career in teaching because of his excellent communication skills. Hence, 'cut out for' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.10.(c) out of breath

Out of breath is an idiomatic expression meaning breathing hard or unable to breathe easily, usually after physical exertion. The given sentence contains a spelling error because breathe (verb) is used instead of breath (noun). Therefore, breathe must be replaced with the correctly spelled word breath. Hence, option (c) is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.11.(b) about the outcome

The word 'Worried' is commonly followed by 'about' when expressing anxiety or concern. Hence, 'about the outcome' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.12.(d) resulted in

'Result in' means to cause a particular situation to happen. The given sentence states that her constant complaints resulted in her losing friends. Hence, 'resulted in' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.13.(a) hear a strange noise

The verb "hear" is a non-continuous (stative) verb, meaning it describes a state or sense, not an ongoing action. Such verbs are not used in the continuous (-ing) form when talking about perception or senses. Hence, "hear a strange noise" is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.14.(a) known the solution

The verb 'know' is a stative verb and stative verbs are generally not used in the continuous tense. 'Had + V₃' is the correct grammatical structure for this clause which is in the past perfect tense. Hence, 'known(V₃) the solution' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.15.(a) doesn't he?

According to the "Question Tag rule", if the statement is positive, the question tag will be negative and vice versa. However, the sentence and the question tag must be in the same tense. Similarly, the given sentence is positive, so the question tag will be negative (doesn't). Hence, 'doesn't he' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.16.(d) as if he were

'As if / as though' is used to provide an unrealistic explanation for something that is unusual or abnormal. As per the given sentence, the person behaves differently or unusually, and 'being the owner of the company' is an unrealistic explanation (not the actual). In this case, we use 'were', not 'was'. Hence, 'as if he were' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.17.(b) were

"If I were ... would + V₁" is used to introduce a hypothetical or unreal situation expressing a wish or imagination. Therefore, 'was' must be replaced with 'were'. Hence, 'were' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.18.(c) who

The word 'that' is unnecessary because 'asked' can be directly followed by an interrogative word like 'who'. Hence, 'who' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.19.(b) increased yesterday

In the given sentence, "yesterday" refers to a specific past time. With specific past time expressions, we use the simple past tense. Therefore, the correct form is 'increased yesterday'.

Sol.20.(a) were taller

The phrase "I wish" is used in the subjunctive mood to express desires. The correct structure is "I wish + simple past." Therefore, the correct sentence should be "I wish I were taller."

Sol.21.(d) for two hours

The sentence is about an action continuing for a period of time, so the correct preposition is for. Therefore, the correct form is "for two hours."

Sol.22.(d) had completed

If two actions took place in the past then the 1st action must be in the Past perfect tense (Had + V₃) and the 2nd action must be in the Simple Past tense (V₂). In the given sentence, 'completing all the arrangements' is the first action. Hence, 'had completed (V₃)' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.23.(a) as badly as

When comparing two things using 'as...as', an adjective or adverb should be in its positive degree. Since 'drives' is a verb, an adverb is required to describe how he drives. 'Badly' is a positive degree adverb. Hence, 'as badly as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.24.(a) as efficiently as

When comparing two things using 'as...as', an adjective or adverb should be in its positive degree. Since 'performs' is a verb, an adverb is required to describe how it performs. 'Efficiently' is a positive degree adverb. Hence, 'as efficiently as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.25.(b) had gained

'By the time' is used to indicate the completion of one action before another. 'By the time + simple past tense, ... past perfect tense' is the correct grammatical structure. Therefore, 'gained (V₂)' must be replaced with 'had gained (V₃)'. Hence, 'had gained' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.26.(d) contains

'Everyone/each/ every/ nothing/ everything/ anything/ either/ neither' represents a singular noun. Therefore, a singular verb (contains) will be used with them. Hence, 'contains' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.27.(a) are moving

Present Continuous tense is used for events planned for the near future. Here, Mohnish and Ravi have planned to move to Canada next month. 'Plural subject + are + V_{ing}' is the correct grammatical structure for present continuous tense. Hence, 'are moving' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.28.(a) has

'Singular Subject(war) + has + V₃' is grammatically the correct structure for the given sentence which is in the present perfect tense. Hence, 'has' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.29.(c) mine

When possessive is written separate from the noun, we use pronouns such as mine, his, hers, yours, etc. In the given sentence, the possessive is written separate from its noun (coffee shop). Hence, 'mine' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.30.(a) in, in

In the first blank, 'in' is used after 'busy' to indicate the activity in which someone is engaged. And in the second blank, 'in' has been used to show the presence of a maid inside a room or house. Hence, 'in, in' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.31.(b) much

We use 'much' before uncountable nouns like much money(uncountable), much milk, etc. Similarly, 'work' in the given sentence is an uncountable noun. Hence, 'much' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.32.(d) The; a

The article 'the' is used to refer to specific or particular nouns. Article 'A' is used before the words starting from a consonant sound - (a conversation, a story). Similarly, 'doctor' is a specific person and the word 'pair' starts from a consonant sound. Hence, 'the; a' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.33.(d) A; the Article 'A' is used before the words starting from a consonant sound - (a conversation, a story, a year). Article 'the' is used for specific or particular nouns. 'NCC' is a specific body of the Indian Army. Hence, 'a; the' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.34.(c) as beautiful as

'As...as' is a comparative structure used to compare two things. Similarly, the given sentence compares her beauty with a peacock. Hence, 'as beautiful as' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.35.(b) have

The verb 'reminds' indicates an action in present tense. We generally use the semi-modal 'have to' with "I/you/we/they" to express a general obligation. Similarly, the given sentence expresses the obligation that I have to be careful. Hence, 'have' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.36.(d) gets

We generally use "Simple Present Tense(V₁-s/es)" to denote actions or activities that are part of one's daily routine or habits. The given sentence states that Meenakshi sweeps the ball excellently when she gets an off-spin delivery. Hence, 'gets' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.37.(c) Ironed out

The phrasal verb 'ironed out' means to solve problems or conflicts in a situation. The given sentence states that the driver resolved the traffic violation he had committed in a skillful manner. Hence, 'ironed out' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.38.(a) about

"Sure about" is a phrasal verb that means to be sure or certain about something. Hence, 'about' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.39.(b) Hard

'Hard' means with a great deal of effort. The given sentence states that I strained hard to catch his options. Hence, 'hard' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.40.(c) 'Perhaps' is used when you are not sure about something. The given sentence states that the humour of the gods is cruel; or perhaps they see more than we do. Hence, 'perhaps' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.41.(d) pay him a visit

'Pay him a visit' means to go somewhere to spend time with someone. The given sentence states that we decided to spend time with him as we were missing him a lot. Hence, 'pay him a visit' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.42.(a) is 'Still' means continuing until now or until the time you are talking about and not finishing. The given sentence states that the mystery behind the extinction of the dinosaurs is still obscure. Hence, 'is still' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.43.(d) Swallow down- To eat or drink something, especially very quickly. So d is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.44.(d) "is + V - ing" will be the correct grammatical structure for the given sentence. Hence, 'is relaxing' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.45.(a) in

We generally use the preposition 'in' to show a place inside or to a position inside a particular area or object. Similarly, the given sentence talks about the place inside the heart of Paris. Hence, 'in' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.46.(b) 'to Cope with' means to deal successfully with a difficult matter or situation. In this sentence doctors and nurses are finding it difficult to deal with patients for long hours. So, option (b) is the most appropriate answer.
Carry on - Continue an activity or task.

Sol.47.(a) The given sentence talks about a war that took place in the past(in 1945), so it must have a verb in the past form(won). Hence, 'won' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.48.(a) 'Your' is the second person possessive adjective that is used to describe something as belonging to you, for example, I wish I had your energy. However, 'your' is usually followed by a noun(including gerunds). Similarly, granting in the given sentence is a gerund. Hence, 'your' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.49.(b) 'Being' is usually used to indicate the cause behind something. Here, when the narrator did not find any porter(the cause), then he himself carried his bag. Hence, 'being' is the most appropriate answer.

Sol.50.(c) As the sentence indicates that nothing worth was done by any of the boys, use of none is most appropriate.
